AGREEMENT

The publisher agrees to ensure that the book conforms to all of the stipulations of the JAHF First Book Subvention Prize:

- The book is single-authored.
- The book is the author's first monograph.
- The book is under contract and will be published pending receipt of subvention.

The publisher agrees to notify JAHF if any subsidies or grants from other sources are awarded during the time JAHF is considering the application or, if subsequent to the award, the publisher receives such grants or subsidies.

If a JAHF First Book Subvention Prize is awarded, the publisher agrees to publish the book without substantially departing from the specifications detailed above. If substantial changes become necessary, the publisher is required to notify JAHF as soon as possible. If the book departs substantially from the above specifications, JAHF reserves the right to cancel the award if it determines that the book no longer meets the criteria upon which the award was based.
